

Arapati Beach Bach, Rarotonga

Relax in Rarotonga

Arapati Beach Bach is a spacious two storey, two bedroom beach house located in Vaimaanga, on the South Coast of Rarotonga. Probably the best kept secret in terms of location on the island. The area is very quiet and has some of the cleanest, least populated white sand beaches in Rarotonga, with great swimming and snorkeling.

The self contained property is open plan with the living and dining areas outside under cover on a split level balcony. The outdoor living area gives a spectacular vista of the tropical lagoon, the reef and the ocean beyond.

Wake up to the views of the lagoon through the bay window of your bedroom - which features one King Size bed and a single futon fold out couch with a walk in wardrobe, ceiling fan and ensuite bathroom and laundry. There is a TV and DVD player and CD/Radio.

The second bedroom and bathroom opens onto the beachfront and connects to the garage below. This "Guest Room" has external access only, and with an ensuite bathroom and private quarters is ideal for an extra couple, or teenagers who want their own space.
